

D3O® VIPER AIR L2

D3O® VIPER AIR L2

D3O uses patented, patent-pending and proprietary technologies to make rate-sensitive, soft, flexible materials with high shock absorbing properties.

Born out of the motorcycle sector's best-selling back protector, D3O® Viper, the D3O® Viper Air range takes back protection to another level.

The Viper Air L2 delivers over 3.5x greater breathability, while having up to 20% less contact with the rider's back for maximum comfort. It also provides greater flexibility while being up to 22% lighter, thanks to new wave geometry & new material formulation.

The lightest, most comfortable, and breathable back protector ever developed by D3O - with no compromise on protection. The Viper Air is designed to enable riders to ride freely with no distractions.
